I look forward to your presentations. Some notes follow. Please read and you must read and if you see any points that I need to correct about your presentations please let me know as early as possible and not later than 23:59 May 7, Saturday.

1. You cannot miss any of the presentations (no excuses). You miss a presentation you miss 33% of the project grade. It is your choice.
2. Make sure that your presentation is available on the web and in a memory stick with you.
3. Your presentation will be evaluated by your classmates by using the form given on the following page. It is just for feedback purposes and not for grading.
4. For each presentation we have a total of 25 minutes allocated including the Q&A part.
5. Make sure that your slides are numbered like slide no./last slide no. (this is required). Furthermore, also make sure that you do not allocate too much time on related work and your slides are not crowded. Make sure that it is nice and simple.
6. Please send a copy of your power point presentation to me.

¹ The typo is corrected on May 10, 2011.
